

ISP & Carrier survey results – July 2011

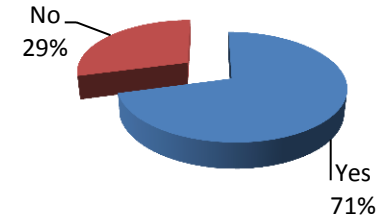

Has your organisation been allocated an IPv6 address range?

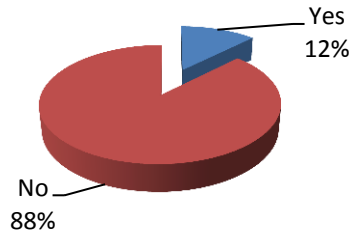

Does your organisation have an IPv6 test environment?

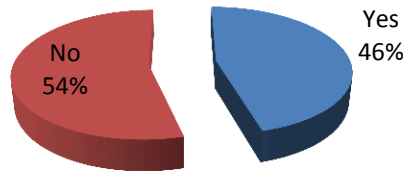

Has your organisation evaluated IPv6 support and features in CPE?

Does your organisation provide resources such as FAQs, knowledge base articles and similar for residential customers needing advice on IPv6?

Does your organisation currently provide IPv6-enabled products and services?

Does your organisation have the capability to provide business customers with IPv6 planning information?

Do you provide authority to publicise your individual responses to this survey in a form which identifies your organisation?

